Many existing local agencies alone cannot address the unique needs of women veterans with or without families and single fathers with girls. WVSS understands these challenges.

We will provide training/education to other agencies that provide services to our Active Duty/ Veteran in distress and assist with policy changes/suggestions to better serve and understand her unique needs to this very underserved populations of North Carolina.

The Deborah Crisis Homes will serve as emergency homes for safety and service.

The Deborah Center is our ultimate dream. The premier healing place for women veterans in our State. A place where 30, 60 and 90 day stay in some cases up to 1 year.
